NUGGETS TAKE GAME ONE

It's officially playoff time in the Mile High City and Denver has their eye on a repeat. They opened their 2024 postseason with a bang in front of a ruckus Ball Arena taking down the Los Angeles Lakers 114-103 to gain a 1-0 series lead. A few notes from the victory:

- The Nuggets have now won their first game in five straight playoff series dating back to last year.
- Moved to 17-3 when opening a series at home in the postseason.
- Finished with only six free throw attempts, becoming just the third team in NBA history to win a playoff game with three or less free throw attempts.
- Denver only had six turnovers ... the 12th time in franchise history and third time since the start of last year's postseason, Denver finished a playoff game with six or fewer turnovers.
- Aaron Gordon recorded 12 points, 11 rebounds, and seven assists in 32 minutes, tying his postseason career-high in assists and falling one rebound shy of his postseason career-high ... For the fourth time in his career, Gordon was +20 in a playoff game (game-high).

EYES SET ON BACK-TO-BACK

The Nuggets regular season has come to a wrap and now the focus is becoming back-to-back world champions. The Nuggets capped off the season with a road win against the Memphis Grizzlies on 4/14. The win marked their 24th road victory of the season, the second most all-time in franchise history. Here are a few other notables from the historic season:

- Tied the franchise record with 57 wins.
- Best offensive rating in franchise history (118.5).
- The Nuggets have now qualified for the playoffs in six straight seasons, the longest streak amongst all franchises in the Western Conference.

Michael Malone

Head Coach • 8th Season with the Nuggets • 20th Season with the NBA

CAREER REGULAR SEASON RECORD (11TH SEASON): 463-362 (.561)

CAREER PLAYOFF RECORD (6 PLAYOFF APPEARANCES): 38-31 (.551)

REGULAR SEASON RECORD WITH NUGGETS (9TH SEASON): 424-295 (.590)

PLAYOFF RECORD WITH NUGGETS (6 PLAYOFF APPEARANCES): 38-31 (.551)

Michael Malone enters his eighth season as head coach of the Denver Nuggets. He was named the 16th head coach in Denver's NBA franchise history on June 15, 2015. He is now the fourth longest tenured coach in the NBA and currently ranks third all-time amongst Nuggets head coaches with 314 wins.

Last season saw Coach Malone lead the Nuggets to a 48-34 record as they clinched a playoff berth for the fourth straight year. Denver finished the season setting a franchise record with 25 road wins and secured the sixth seed in the Western Conference playoffs while being shorthanded due to injuries throughout the season.

Despite missing Jamal Murray in two straight postseasons, Malone has helped lead the Nuggets to a playoff series victory in three of the last four seasons. Since 2018-19, Denver has four playoff series victories, which matches the franchise total for the previous 32 years. Malone has totaled 21 postseason wins, which is tied for second all-time in franchise history trailing Doug Moe by three for first.

Since Malone has taken over prior to the 2015-16 season, the Nuggets have seen the postseason on four occasions including a Western Conference Finals appearance in 2020, the first for the franchise since 2009. The Nuggets are also second in the NBA, trailing only the Milwaukee Bucks for the most combined regular season and postseason wins in a four-year span with 216. Additionally, based on winning percentage, Malone has overseen three of the top ten seasons in NBA franchise history.

Malone has 353 victories as an NBA head coach and possesses over 25 years of coaching experience, 21 coming in the NBA with six different teams – New York, Cleveland, New Orleans, Golden State, Sacramento and Denver. The teams that Malone has been a member of the coaching staff have amassed 13 playoff appearances, including one NBA Finals showing and three conference finals appearances. Malone and his staff also were selected to coach Team LeBron at the 2019 NBA All-Star game in Charlotte, NC, defeating Team Giannis 178-164.

Before joining the Nuggets, Malone served as the head coach of the Sacramento Kings for two seasons. Before his time with the Kings, Malone was the lead assistant for the Golden State Warriors under Mark Jackson from 2011-13 where they clinched a postseason berth in 2013, their first since 2007.

Prior to Golden State, Malone worked as the lead assistant to Monty Williams in New Orleans and helped the Hornets achieve a 46-36 record and a trip to the 2011 NBA Playoffs. The Hornets were the most improved defensive team in the NBA in 2011, allowing a league-best 8.7 fewer points per game than in the previous campaign (94.0 ppg, after giving up 102.7 ppg in 2009-10).

Malone also served as an assistant coach under Mike Brown for the Cleveland Cavaliers for five seasons, during which the Cavs posted a 272-138 (.663) record, the third-best mark in the NBA over that span. The Cavaliers made five consecutive playoff appearances during Malone's time on the bench, reaching the NBA Finals in 2007 and the Eastern Conference Finals in 2009. In 2008-09, the Cavs notched a franchise record and NBA-best 66 wins, with Malone and the rest of the team's staff earning the right to coach the Eastern Conference All-Star squad. In 2009-10, the Cavaliers again captured the league's best regular season record with 61 wins.

Malone's NBA coaching career began with a four-season stint with the New York Knicks, where he originally joined Jeff Van Gundy's staff as a coaching associate in the summer of 2001, and was promoted to assistant coach in May 2003.

Before joining the NBA, Malone coached seven years in the college ranks, with his last stop coming at Manhattan College where he was the lead assistant. During the 1998-99 season Malone worked at the University of Virginia as its director of men's basketball administration. Malone also spent three seasons (1995-96 – 1997-98) at Providence College under New York Basketball Hall of Fame coach Pete Gillen after beginning his coaching career working for Greg Kampe at Oakland University in Michigan.

Malone is a three-time participant in the NBA's "Basketball Without Borders" program, having coached at the league's global outreach camps in Africa (2017), Puerto Rico (2006) and Argentina (2005). In 2017 Malone traveled to Johannesburg, South Africa where he spent a week coaching at the BWB camps and then served as an assistant coach for Team Africa, for the NBA Africa Game 2017.

Malone also served as an assistant coach for the Canadian Men's Senior National Team for three years. He helped guide the Canadian team to a top-four finish in the 2009 FIBA Americas Championship in Puerto Rico, qualifying Canada for the 2010 World Championships.

A native of Queens, New York, Malone played college basketball at Loyola College in Maryland, where he graduated with a BA degree in 1994. He is a graduate of New Jersey's Seton Hall Prep where he played two years under Bob Farrell. Malone also played a season under Tom Blackburn at Worcester Academy (Mass.).

Michael is the son of longtime NBA coach Brendan Malone, who has coached over 28 years in the league.

He and his wife, Jocelyn, have two daughters, Caitlin and Bridget.
